What this concept shows

Saltmarrow shows how a restaurant can share its menu, story, hours, and reservations across a few focused pages that feel warm and inviting.

WHO IT'S FOR

A great fit for restaurants, cafes, bars, bakeries, and food trucks.

Features and how to try them

Each feature links to the exact spot on the live site.

1

Live open or closed status

The header shows whether the restaurant is open right now, or when it opens next, based on its weekly hours.

TRY IT

Look at the status next to the Reserve button at the top of any page. Open it →

WHY IT MATTERS

Answers the most common question a guest has before they even ask it.

2

Menu with tabs and dietary filters

The menu is split into Dinner, Brunch, and Drinks tabs. Vegetarian and Gluten free filters hide anything that does not match.

TRY IT

Switch tabs, then turn on the Vegetarian filter.

Open it →

WHY IT MATTERS

Guests with dietary needs find their options in seconds.

3

Reservation booking flow

Guests choose a party size, pick a day from the next two weeks, and select an open time. A summary card updates as they go, and closed days and booked times are shown clearly.

TRY IT

Change the party size, choose a day, and pick a time. Open it →

WHY IT MATTERS

Fills tables around the clock without tying up the phone.

4

Private dining inquiry

A separate form for group events collects the guest count, date, and details.

TRY IT

Scroll to Private dining on the Reservations page. Open it →

WHY IT MATTERS

Captures larger, higher value bookings.

5

Hours that highlight today

The Visit page lists the weekly hours and highlights today's row automatically.

TRY IT

Open the Visit page and find today's hours. Open it →

WHY IT MATTERS

Makes hours easy to read at a glance.

6

Illustrated location map

A custom drawn map shows the restaurant, parking, and nearby landmarks in the site's own style.

TRY IT

Scroll to the map on the Visit page. Open it →

WHY IT MATTERS

Helps guests picture where they are going.

7

Gentle scroll animations

Sections fade in softly as visitors scroll, which makes the site feel polished.

TRY IT

Scroll slowly down the home page. Open it →

WHY IT MATTERS

A polished feel matches the quality of the food.

Good to know

- Saltmarrow Kitchen is a fictional restaurant. The address, phone number, and email are placeholders.
- The reservation and private dining forms show a confirmation but do not book or send anything.
- On a real site, reservations could connect to the restaurant's booking system or email.
- The features shown are examples of what Jalen Digital can build. Your exact features and pricing are confirmed during your consultation.
